ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. - The Eckerd College men's basketball team used a 13-2 run midway through the second half to pick up a 69-59 non-conference victory over visiting Armstrong Atlantic State University on Saturday evening in the Eckerd College Thanksgiving Classic in St. Petersburg, Fla.

The Tritons (4-2) notched their third straight win with the victory, while Armstrong (3-4) suffered its third straight loss.

Armstrong never trailed in the first half, getting a layup from senior Kelcey Walker on the Pirates' first possession and staying ahead of the Tritons until a mini 5-0 run over the last two minutes allowed Eckerd to tie the score up at 29-all at the break.

After a basket from senior Darius Morales put the Pirates back in front by two coming out of the second half, four free throws by Jerrick Stevenson gave the host Tritons their first lead of the game, 33-31, with 18:45 remaining. Armstrong trailed by two with 12:48 left, 41-39, on a basket by junior Emmanuel Tiluscar, but a three-pointer by
